Bill Nimmer appointed to Palmetto Electric Board

Bill Nimmer of Bluffton, SC, has been appointed to serve on Palmetto Electric's Board of Directors. "Nimmer, a native of Ridgeland and a nine year resident of Bluffton, will fill the Beaufort County position left vacant upon the recent retirement of J. Willock Horton," said Deborah Malphrus, Chairman of the Palmetto Electric Board of Directors. "We welcome Mr. Nimmer and appreciate his willingness to serve the members of Palmetto Electric," added Malphrus.

Nimmer is president of Champion Wood Pellets and vice president of Nimmer Turf Farm, Inc. He is also a member of St. Gregory the Great Catholic Church where he has served on the building and school committees. He also coaches girl's basketball at St. Gregory the Great Catholic School. Nimmer is a graduate of Clemson University with a degree in Business Administration. He was a member of Clemson's golf team.

Nimmer is married to Susan Markey Nimmer. They have three children. "I am honored to be a part of Palmetto Electric's Board of Directors and look forward to serving our members," said Nimmer.

Ms. Malphrus also commended Mr. Horton for his forty-two years of service to Palmetto Electric. His time on the board included fourteen years as chairman. He also served for a number of years as secretary/treasurer of the board and on various committees. Mr. Horton stated that he was pleased by the selection of Mr. Nimmer and expressed his thanks to the members of Palmetto Electric for allowing him to serve them for over four decades. Ms. Malphrus added that his presence on the board will be missed by all.
